

Assessing Background Research...

I'm doing a study on rape and domestic violence, and I retrieve the following sources as background material for my study. For each source, identify if it (a) is primary, (b) is scholarly, (c) used sources properly, and (d) would be used in a quality review of literature?

	Primary? If not, what is a primary source they use?	Scholarly? If yes, was it peer reviewed?	Rate their use of quality sources (none 0-10 great)	Use?
